PUBLIC COMMENT

Supervisor Segura invited public comment.

Mayor Corey Calaycay spoke about his previous engagement with former Chair Gia Santoro-Huie and expressed his excitement about returning to the Teen Committee. He offered the Committee the opportunity to tour the Mosquito District and the Sanitation District. His goal is to make these tours more accessible, and he will discuss this with Bevin Handel, Public Information Officer, to coordinate the efforts.

The Committee inquired about the possibility of conducting leadership training with the Mayor and exploring a joint training session. They also discussed the topic of redistricting with the Mayor. Additionally, Bevin Handel, Public Information Officer, Deborah Scott Toux, Commission Liaison, and Mayor Calaycay engaged in a discussion about the differences between speaking publicly in their personal roles versus making statements regarding their professional roles.
